

SAYS MAAS DISOBEYED ORDERS AT VERA CRUZ

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Cal., May 15.—That Provisional President Huerta had issued specific orders to General Gustav Maas, commanding the Mexican forces at Vera Cruz, to offer no opposition to the landing of Americans and that these orders were disobeyed by Gen. Maas on his own responsibility, is a statement vouched for today by E. Des Morelos, of Mexico, electrician, on his arrival here from Vera Cruz via New Orleans.

"I talked with Maas on the evening of April 20th," said Des Morelos. "He told me he had received orders to retreat with his men to the hills, but, he said, 'I am going to resist notwithstanding.'" either Chicago or St. Louis, and some one from New England, to preserve the geographical balance of the board.

WEBBER AND VALLON ADMIT THEY LIED

New York, May 15.—Bridgie Webber did his worst for Becker and his best for Rose. The simple facts are that Attorney Manton for the defense left Webber without a shred of repute except the mere title "Mister," granted him by the gunmen and gangsters who were awed by his money, but Webber clung to the main accusations against Becker, that Becker in the Harlem conference took the job of murdering Rosenthal out of Rose's hands and gave it to him, and that he met Becker after the killing, heard Becker's alleged comment on the dead squalor, and supplied at Becker's command $1,000 to pay the gunmen. Like Jack Rose, he emphasized the two great points on which the whole case swings, the Harlem conference and the post-mortem arrangements. In every way Manton tried to squeeze from Webber some statement or admission that would support the defense put forward that Rose had Rosenthal assassinated because Rosenthal sent word to the gangsters that Rose put Zelig in the Tombs. But Webber carefully protected Rose, exculpated him wherever exculpation was possible, and invariably glided back to Becker as the man responsible.

Harry Vallon, fellow conspirator with Bald Jack Rose and others in the plot, underwent cross-examination today. He admitted that he had lied on many occasions regarding the murder, but swore that his story of events leading up to the crime was correct in its essential details. Counsel for the defense fired question after question at the witness in an endeavor to show that his testimony connecting Becker with the conspirators was false. In no important point, however, was the witness's story broken down.

UNRULY WOMEN SENT TO PRISON

London, England, May 15.—Sentences of a month's imprisonment each were pronounced today on "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Mrs. Dacre-Fox, two militant suffragists leaders. They were charged with disturbing the peace by camping on the doorsteps at the residences of Sir Edward Carson and Lord Landsdowne yesterday.

The accused women refused to give bond to keep the peace for six months and turned the court proceedings into a farce by interrupting the evidence and by jeering the magistrate while he pronounced the sentence. When ordered to their cells, the women became so violent it was necessary to get eight policemen to remove them from the prisoners' enclosure. They were dragged out of the court room screaming and shrieking.

This general view of the memorial service for the Vera Cruz dead was taken at the Brooklyn navy yard just after the seventeen bodies in flag draped coffins on caissons drawn by four horses each arrived from the march through New York city. President Wilson, indicated by the white arrow, stood in the center of the stand with head uncovered as the caaskets were drawn around the navy yard parade grounds and up in front of him.

10 KILLED

By Associated Press.

Detroit, Mich., May 15.—Ten men were killed and three terribly injured in an explosion this forenoon which blew the plant of the Mexican Rubber Company to pieces. There were about 25 employees working in the plant. 11 survivors have been accounted for.

Gasoline is believed to have been responsible for the explosion. Most of the victims were skilled mechanics. One body was blown through the building. Three other bodies were burned beyond recognition. Three men were removed to a hospital and physicians said they did not expect any of the men would survive.

Dozens of windows in buildings near the Rubber Company plant were shattered.

There are several reports as to the cause of the explosion. Survivors said a vat containing a large quantity of molten rubber exploded. Officials of the company declined to issue a statement until they conducted an investigation. The plant, a one-story concrete building in West Detroit, was almost obliterated. Flying chunks of substance riddled adjoining buildings and concrete blocks weighing several pounds were found more than two blocks from the scene of the explosion. The factory of an automobile company, about 100 feet from the rubber concern was badly damaged.

BUSINESS SECTION OF TOWN DESTROYED

By Associated Press.

Johnstown, Pa., May 15.—The entire business section of Glen Campbell, 20 miles west of here, was destroyed by fire today with a loss of $200,000. The fire started in the cellar of the Nelson building from some cause not yet determined.

SYMPATHIZERS' DEMONSTRATION

By Associated Press.

Worcester, Mass., May 15.—A mob of strike sympathizers numbering more than 1000 men and women, mostly foreigners, made a riotous demonstration today in the vicinity of the rattan factories of the Heywood Brothers, where the strike has been in progress for several weeks. Several windows were broken and electric cars were held up and searched for loyal workers and strike-breakers, many of whom were assaulted. The police had difficulty in handling the crowd and Chief of Police Pollard announced that unless order was restored, the militia would be called out.

Washington, D. C., May 15.—Admiral Badger reported that the Mexican Federal gunboats Zaragosa and Bravo and the tug Tampico, which left Tampico yesterday followed by an American gunboat and two destroyers, were expected to reach Puerto, Mexico, early tomorrow. ARMIES REST AT MAZATLAN

By Associated Press.

On Board the U. S. S. California, Mazatlan, via wireless from San Diego, May 15.—In spite of General Huerta's revocation of his order closing the ports of Mexico to American shipping, the port officials at Mazatlan refused to clear the Pacific Mail liner Newport for San Francisco. Rear Admiral Doyle issued papers to the Newport which will serve as clearance. The insurgents and Federal forces which have been battling incessantly for a fortnight over possession of Mazatlan, rested today. General O'Bregon, commander of the Constitutionalists has made no move to follow up the advantage gained in the last two weeks of siege.

GIVES HOSPITAL

Fremont, O., May 15.—Mrs. Webb C. Hayes, Fremont's wealthiest woman, notified the chamber of commerce and Sandusky County Medical society she will contribute a sum of $100,000 in cash and property to endow a hospital here as a memorial to her mother, Mrs. Nancy Otis Miller, provided the sum of $3,000 a year is guaranteed towards maintenance. The proposition will be accepted.

The arrest was made on information telephoned from the Sheriff of Lawrence county, who said that Beard, after the murder, ransacked the house, stole $20 and two gold watches. He drove to the railroad station and took the train for Chicago. Beard said he arrived here this morning and went directly to the home of his sister.

FARMHAND CONFESSES SLAYING OF 3 PERSONS

By Associated Press.

Ironton, Ohio, May 15.—Mrs. Dennis Massie, her son Robert and daughter Mary, were murdered last night at their country home at Greasy Ridge, 25 miles from Ironton, their bodies being found today. The mother, 75, the son and daughter, past 45, were prominently connected in this city, another son being Commissioner W. E. Massie.

Miss Mary Massie was found in the kitchen of the house, her hands tied behind her back and her throat cut. Robert was found in the back yard with his head battered in and the aged mother was found in the front yard with her throat cut and skull crushed.

The police claim that the position in which the bodies were found strongly indicated an attack on the daughter, the pursuit and murder of the mother in the yard and the way-laying and killing of the son near the barn.

A search is being made for Harley Beard, 21, employed on the place, who is said to have disappeared.

REACHES CHICAGO AND IS ARRESTED

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Ill., May 15.—Harley Beard, aged 18, arrested here this afternoon, confessed to the murder of three persons on a farm near Ironton, Ohio, yesterday. Beard, with perfect calmness, in the presence of detectives, said that he first beat his victims on the head with a stick of wood and then completed the work with a razor. Those he killed were Robert Massie, 45, his sister Mary, aged 46, and their mother, Mrs. Nancy Massie, aged 80.

Beard was arrested at the home of his sister, Mrs. D. E. Day at 1331 W. Madison St. "I went to work for the Massies last September," said the prisoner, whose words were written down by a detective. "I worked for them all winter and we got along all right, although on the whole they treated me pretty rough, particularly Bob. Last Monday morning at 3:30 or 4 o'clock, Mary and I got up and hitched up the rig for Bob. He said he was going to Ironton or to Arlington to buy some furniture. Mary followed me to my room and when I ordered her out, we quarreled. Then her mother came and scolded me and when I tried to answer back that I was not at fault, she would not listen. Bob got back about 11 o'clock that night and then Mary's story was told to him. He did not say much to me Tuesday, but Wednesday afternoon while he was nailing a board on a fence, he tried to hit me with a hatchet. I warded off this blow, but the next landed, and he said he would cut my head off."

The confession recites that after this Bob started from the house, Beard following. The fight was renewed. Beard picked up a stake and as Bob reached the doorway he hit him over the head. Mary came running up and was felled with another blow and the same fate was dealt out to the aged mother. Beard continued: "And as I did not think the Massies were dead, I cut their throats with a razor." This ended the confession, except that the relator added that he was not sure

MEDIATION IS DELAYED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., May 15.—The opening of negotiations of the South American mediators in the Mexican controversy at Niagara Falls was today postponed until Wednesday, May 20th, the State Department announced. The sessions were originally scheduled to begin Monday, May 18th.

The delay was arranged at the request of the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. De Gama, in order that the Mexican delegation to the conference who are speeding northward from Key West today, might not be unduly hurried in their trip to Niagara Falls. The Mexican delegation will reach Washington shortly after noon tomorrow and they will be given an opportunity by the postponement to spend some time in Washington to get in touch with the situation here before proceeding with the formal negotiations.

REFUSES SEAT ON FEDERAL BOARD

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—Harry A. Wheeler, of Chicago, Vice-President of the Continental Trust Company, has declined a membership upon the Federal Reserve Board.

President Wilson received a letter from Mr. Wheeler, expressing his regret that he was unable to accept the appointment, recently offered him, because of business connections which he cannot sever.

The President now has two places to fill on the board. Dr. A. C. Miller, San Francisco; P. M. Warburg, New York City, and W. P. G. Harding, of Birmingham, already have accepted. Besides selecting two more men, the President must select one of them as governor and another as vice governor. He is canvassing again the list of 150 names which was before him when he made his first choice. He is anxious now to select some one from the middle west.

AT HOME AND NOT IN FACTORY

By Associated Press.

Memphis, Tenn., May 14.—"No standard of living and labor should be accepted as proper in any community that does not recognize the maintenance of that normal family life which is at once the foundation of any sound principle system and the basis of all healthy social progress." This was the keynote of the report of the standing committee on "Standards of Living and Labor," of the National Conference on Charities and Corrections, prepared by Charles P. Neill, former United States commissioner of labor. It was read to the conference tonight by Owen N. Lovejoy, of Washington.

There may be differences of opinion among various schools of thought as to what is "woman's proper sphere" it was admitted, "but upon one proposition concerning woman's work there cannot be two opinions among right-minded people and this is that a woman with an able bodied husband and a family of young children, belongs in her home attending to her household duties and rearing her children and not in mill, factory or workshop."

Attention was called to the fact that charity workers are more generally accepting the principle that needy families should as far as practicable be kept together and the family life maintained and families broken up only when other resources fail. It was pointed out, however, that due to present industrial conditions a partial breaking up of families is going on rapidly among working families who are not dependents and in no way under the care of charitable institutions.

Pointing out that it is not the contention of the committee that every occupation in every industry should pay what might be called a "family living wage" and that it is recognized that hundreds of thousands of children and young women must work for small pay, the report holds:

"On the other hand there is a vast field of industry in which the labor is performed by men with families and the great standard industries should furnish employment to this class on such a basis of remuneration as would enable a worker to support his family in comfort by his own efforts during these years from marriage until his oldest children are able to contribute their share towards the growing needs of the family.

"Until a system has been set up that will keep the mothers of young children in their homes and not in the mills and keep little children in their homes and schools, we cannot rest satisfied with out standards of living and labor."

STOOKEY'S FRIENDS
GIVEN STIFF FINES

Velma and Elsie Delph, aged 18 and 20 years, said to be the two girls who were Orville Stookey, the horse thief, when arrested in Greenfield last Sunday evening, were arrested at their home near East Monroe, first of the week, on charges of immorality, and were bound over to the probate court of Highland county.

Probate Judge Worley, after hearing the evidence against them, gave each a fine of $100 and the costs with 90 days in the county jail.

The parents of the two girls died about one year ago, leaving them alone in the world, and they have resided in a cottage about one mile from East Monroe.

The girls were soon on the downward road, and considerable complaint has been made against them by neighbors.

When Marshal Willis of Greenfield made the arrest Sunday night two married men were found at the place, and they will probably be dealt with a little later on.

STARTS SUIT
AGAINST STOCKHOLDERS

Suit was filed in the Greene county Common Pleas Court Wednesday morning by Emery Lattanner, Superintendent of State banks in Ohio, against the Osborn bank and the stockholders of that institution to force them to make good the liabilities of the bank under the liability law. The suit was brought for the benefit of the creditors of the bank by Lattanner, who as superintendent of State banks, is in charge of the liquidation of the Osborn bank, and is in full charge and control of the assets of the bank. In his petition Mr. Lattanner sets forth that the Osborn bank was incorporated December 30, 1889, with a capital stock of $30,000 divided into 600 shares of a par value of $50 each. Under the present law the holders of this stock are liable for the debts of the bank.

While the liquidation of the bank, which is now in progress, has not been completed, Mr. Lattanner avers that the excess of liabilities over the assets will be approximately $90,000. This estimate is based upon the assets already realized and those which may be realized.

It is charged in the petition that the bank was grossly insolvent on June 18th, 1913, and for some time

CLAIMS MOTHER'S PLACE IS AT HOME AND NOT IN FACTORY

By Associated Press.

Memphis, Tenn., May 14.—"No standard of living and labor should be accepted as proper in any community that does not recognize the maintenance of that normal family life which is at once the foundation of any sound principle system and the basis of all healthy social progress." This was the keynote of the report of the standing committee on "Standards of Living and Labor," of the National Conference on Charities and Corrections, prepared by Charles P. Neill, former United States commissioner of labor. It was read to the conference tonight by Owen N. Lovejoy, of Washington.

There may be differences of opinion among various schools of thought as to what is "woman's proper sphere" it was admitted, "but upon one proposition concerning woman's work there cannot be two opinions among right-minded people and this is that a woman with an able bodied husband and a family of young children, belongs in her home attending to her household duties and rearing her children and not in mill, factory or workshop."

Attention was called to the fact that charity workers are more generally accepting the principle that needy families should as far as practicable be kept together and the family life maintained and families broken up only when other resources fail. It was pointed out, however, that due to present industrial conditions a partial breaking up of families is going on rapidly among working families who are not dependents and in no way under the care of charitable institutions.

Pointing out that it is not the contention of the committee that every occupation in every industry should pay what might be called a "family living wage" and that it is recognized that hundreds of thousands of children and young women must work for small pay, the report holds:

"On the other hand there is a vast field of industry in which the labor is performed by men with families and the great standard industries should furnish employment to this class on such a basis of remuneration as would enable a worker to support his family in comfort by his own efforts during these years from marriage until his oldest children are able to contribute their share towards the growing needs of the family.

"Until a system has been set up that will keep the mothers of young children in their homes and not in the mills and keep little children in their homes and schools, we cannot rest satisfied with out standards of living and labor."

STOOKEY'S FRIENDS GIVEN STIFF FINES

Velma and Elsie Delph, aged 18 and 20 years, said to be the two girls who were Orville Stookey, the horse thief, when arrested in Greenfield last Sunday evening, were arrested at their home near East Monroe, first of the week, on charges of immorality, and were bound over to the probate court of Highland county.

Probate Judge Worley, after hearing the evidence against them, gave each a fine of $100 and the costs with 90 days in the county jail.

The parents of the two girls died about one year ago, leaving them alone in the world, and they have resided in a cottage about one mile from East Monroe.

The girls were soon on the downward road, and considerable complaint has been made against them by neighbors.

When Marshal Willis of Greenfield made the arrest Sunday night two married men were found at the place, and they will probably be dealt with a little later on.

One Lone Steel Bridge

To the west of North street on the line of the new street which is intended, when completed, to connect the northern section of the city with Millwood, stands, solitary and alone, high and dry, a good steel bridge all in order, and ready for the use of the public.

This bridge, high up in the air, casting its silhouette against the sky is a mute reminder of the long standing need of Washington people for a cross street. Hundreds of people who are employed in Millwood must cross from east to west to get to work every morning. The same workers must cross from west to east every evening to get home again.

It is many blocks out of the way to go down to Paint street and then back again.

To do that means late to work in the morning and late to the well earned evening meal. To take the short cut, in bad weather, across the creek bottoms means wet feet and muddy clothing and a perilous crossing of the foot bridge over the creek.

Years ago the agitation for a cross street was commenced and a comparatively long time ago, the last of a long line of judicial proceedings was ended and the right of way secured. There then has remained, for some time, nothing to be done save and except the building of the street and the bridge spanning the creek.

The bridge is builded and stands there so that all who look may see that some one's work is done and well done too. Some one has discharged a duty. While that fact is abundantly attested by the presence of the lone steel bridge, that high, up in the air bridge, also furnishes proof positive that some one's work has not been done.

There is a considerable fill to be made leading up to the bridge. Earth must be hauled from somewhere and the fill made.

Wouldn't it be a good idea for the city to haul the waste from the streets, the better class of trash and rubbish to that point and build up the approaches to the bridge.

The city must have a dumping ground somewhere—why not along the line of the proposed street

Certainly some authorities are charged with the duty of connecting up this new street. The bridge should be put to use—the people who need a street builded through the creek bottoms should have it.

The lone steel bridge is, and will continue to be until the work is done, a mute reminder that a duty to a large part of our citizens remains undischarged.

The lone steel bridge tells a story. It recalls the existence of a need, the history of the removal of the legal obstacles that strewed the pathway of those who sought to have that need provided for, the work that has been done and the work that remains undone.

In Mexico, as In Family Trouble, One Who Interferes Incurs General Hostility of All Parties

© 1914, by American Press Association.

By ANDREW CARNEGIE

WE CANNOT EXPECT OUR SISTER REPUBLICS TO SEE OUR GIANT REPUBLIC INTERFERING WITH ANY ONE OF THEM WITHOUT AROUSING ALL OF THEM AGAINST US. IF WE ASSERTED A RIGHT TO INTERFERE WITH ANY ONE OF OUR SMALL SISTER REPUBLICS WE WOULD NOT ONLY ARRAY ALL THE DISCORDANT ELEMENTS IN THAT REPUBLIC WE ATTACK, BUT ALL OUR SISTER REPUBLICS. THE OTHER REPUBLICS WOULD NATURALLY FEEL, WHOSE TURN NEXT?

In the case of Huerta he might be suspected of knowing that if the American republic interfered with him Mexicans of all three warring divisions would turn promptly against the one who interfered. In family quarrels the usual result is that the ONE WHO INTERFERES BETWEEN MAN AND WIFE INCURS THE HOSTILITY OF BOTH.

Poetry For Today

J. CAESAR, ROAD BUILDER.

"When Caesar took an eastward ride and grabbed the Galus of Rome, What was the first thing that he did to make them feel at home? Did he increase the people's loads and liberty forbid? No, he dug in and built good roads—that's what old Caesar did.

Did Caesar put the iron heel upon the foreman's breast, Or did he try to make them feel that Roman rule was best? What did he do, to make them glad he came their lands amid? He built good roads in place of bad—that's what old Caesar did.

He built good roads from hill to hill, good roads from vale to vale; He ran a good roads movement 'til old Rome got all the kale. He told the folks to buy a home, build roads their ruts to rid. Until all roads led up to Rome—that's what old Caesar did.

If any town would make itself their center of the map, Where folks will come and settle down and live in plenty's lap, If any town its own abodes of poverty would rid; Let it go out and build good roads—just like old Caesar did.

WE CANNOT EXPECT OUR SISTER REPUBLICS TO SEE OUR GIANT REPUBLIC INTERFERING WITH ANY ONE OF THEM WITHOUT AROUSING ALL OF THEM AGAINST US. IF WE ASSERTED A RIGHT TO INTERFERE WITH ANY ONE OF OUR SMALL SISTER REPUBLICS WE WOULD NOT ONLY ARRAY ALL THE DISCORDANT ELEMENTS IN THAT REPUBLIC WE ATTACK, BUT ALL OUR SISTER REPUBLICS. THE OTHER REPUBLICS WOULD NATURALLY FEEL, WHOSE TURN NEXT?

In the case of Huerta he might be suspected of knowing that if the American republic interfered with him Mexicans of all three warring divisions would turn promptly against the one who interfered. In family quarrels the usual result is that the ONE WHO INTERFERES BETWEEN MAN AND WIFE INCURS THE HOSTILITY OF BOTH.

Poetry For Today

J. CAESAR, ROAD BUILDER.

"When Caesar took an eastward ride and grabbed the Galus of Rome, What was the first thing that he did to make them feel at home? Did he increase the people's loads and liberty forbid? No, he dug in and built good roads—that's what old Caesar did.

Did Caesar put the iron heel upon the foreman's breast, Or did he try to make them feel that Roman rule was best?

What did he do, to make them glad he came their lands amid? He built good roads in place of bad—that's what old Caesar did.

He built good roads from hill to hill, good roads from vale to vale; He ran a good roads movement 'til old Rome got all the kale.

He told the folks to buy a home, build roads their ruts to rid, Until all roads led up to Rome—that's what old Caesar did.

If any town would make itself their center of the map, Where folks will come and settle down and live in plenty's lap,

If any town its own abodes of poverty would rid; Let it go out and build good roads—just like old Caesar did.

FIRST COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC PLANNED FOR JULY 4

Present plans of the committee appointed by the County Sunday School convention to make preparations for a county Sunday school picnic, call for the big event on Saturday, July 4th, at the Fair grounds, and if the affair is carried out as planned it will be a day long to be remembered by the thousands who are expected to attend.

After making a careful investigation of the proposal the committee decided that July 4th is the logical date, and that the fair grounds is the ideal place for such an event.

The plans include a safe and sane Fourth of July celebration, with no admission fee at the gate, and with a long program of entertaining events that will please both old and young, and give them a day of royal enjoyment.

Athletic events, contests, horse, automobile and foot races. Band music throughout the day and evening. Good speaking, picnic dinner, and a general social time, giving everyone a chance to meet everyone else and get acquainted or renew acquaintance.

Every Sunday school pupil in the county is expected to attend the event and invite their friends. While the affair will be known as the First Annual Fayette County Sunday School Picnic, it will be open to the friends of Sunday school pupils.

Arrangements will be made to handle a crowd of 5000 to 10,000 persons, and if present plans are carried out, one of the most elaborate pyrotechnic displays ever witnessed in the city will attract another crowd of thousands for the close of the program at night.

DEEP INTEREST IN THE CAMPAIGN

"You can test the modern community by the degree of its interest in its Young Men's Christian Association," said President Woodrow Wilson, when asked for his views on the Y. M. C. A.

And with the approach of the clean-up movement for the local Y. M. C. A. to lift the indebtedness and place the institution upon a proper basis, the interest is increasing all over the county, and prospects for success of the movement are pronounced very bright.

More and more time is being devoted to the preparations by the general campaign committee, and the progress of the work has been remarkable, as the citizens of the community realize that the possession of the Y. M. C. A. building and equipment is but a small part of the benefits derived from the institution. The results of the work of the Association in this city and county are, to the careful observer, very marked, and as time progresses the institution becomes more and more the hub of most of the big movements in the city and county.

The scars of use are to be expected, for that is what furniture is for; it is bought with the idea of using it and the more comfortable a chair, the more luxurious a couch or settee, the more knocks they get. BLOOMINGBURG COMMENCEMENT

The annual commencement of the Bloomingburg High school held at the Presbyterian church, passed successfully into the annals of history Thursday night.

It was a notable commencement in more ways than one.

A class of eleven graduates, the largest graduating class of the Bloomingburg High school except that of the year of 1912, which also numbered eleven, gracefully received commencement laurels amid the plaudits of the largest crowd ever in attendance.

The church was beautifully decorated and furnished an effective setting for the bright faced girls and boys of the class, and music and oratory added their attractions. Seated behind a bank of flowers were the members of the class: Forest Whiteside, Priscilla Cole, Doris Sheley, Orla Irvin, Howard Hopkins, Raymond Whiteside, Stanley Whiteside, Selsor Parker, Raymond Vance, Robert Kincaid and Harry Pugsley.

The class was represented by two members, Miss Forest Whiteside giving the salutatory with charming ease, and Howard Hopkins the valedictorian. Mr. Hopkins had written an able production, but owing to illness was not able to present it, and a classmate, Raymond Whiteside, delivered it in excellent style.

A fine class address was given by Prof. Charles Freeman, head of the Literature department of Ada, and Superintendent Borders presented the diplomas with well chosen words of congratulation.

The Bloomingburg orchestra of six pieces, surpassed its former good work and rendered musical numbers that brought forth delighted encores.

The commencement was a fitting climax to a most satisfactory school year.

WALTER E. MCCOY HONORED IN INDIANA

A host of friends in Fayette county will be interested in the following clipping from the Greensburg, Ind., Daily.

"Walter E. McCoy, our county agent, has been invited to judge the Aberdeen-Angus cattle show at the Forest City fair in North Randall, Ohio, August 21-25, asking him to accept and name price. This is the second largest fair in the Buckeye state, and where they hang up $60,000 in cash for premiums, so of course have a great cattle show. This is quite a compliment to Walter's ability as a judge and we are sure it is well founded for he was brought up in the 'cattle show game' and knows the business."

Mr. McCoy, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mart L. McCoy, won quite a reputation in the line of cattle judging while student judge at the O. S. U., and is considered an expert all round cattle man.

The result of the initial trip of the car will be watched with interest by railroad men and citizens who will use the unit car service.

CALLED SOUTH BY BROTHER'S DEATH

County Treasurer R. S. Quinn was called to Gallatin, Mo., Friday afternoon by the death of his half-brother Mr. Garrett O'Ferrall.

SERIES OF SUNDAY EVENING LECTURES

"Heroes of the Faith" is the general topic of a series of Sunday evening lectures by Rev. F. E. Ross, of Grace church, just announced in the following bulletin:

Emerson says, "There is properly no history, only biography." The life of any period epitomizes itself in the souls of its elect men or women. Macaulay reminds us that, "The sun illuminates the hills while it is still below the horizon; and truth is discovered by the highest minds a little before it becomes manifest to the multitude." Among the greatest benefactors of the race are its spiritual leaders, its champions of the ideal.

It is the aim of these lectures to study these lives, to ascertain the sources of their power, and to estimate their part in the making of present-day civilization.

The subjects and dates are as follows:

- Origen, the Greatest of the Greek Christian Fathers. May 17.
- Augustine, the Master Thinker of the Latin Church. May 24.
- Baccalaureate Sermon. May 31.
- Savonarola, the Martyr of Florence. June 7.
- Luther, the Hero of the Great Reformation. June 14.
- Calvin, the Foremost Genius of the Reformed Faith. June 21.
- John Wesley, the Founder of Methodism. June 28.
- Beginning June 14th, morning and evening, the services will be held in the High School auditorium.

The public is most cordially invited to these services.

The directors are still negotiating with the Wells Fargo Express Company to take over the contracts arbitrated by the United States Express Company at its recent dissolution.

A BOLD ACT OF CHINESE PIRATES

By Associated Press.

Canton, China, April 15.—Ordinary acts of piracy, which occur frequently in the rivers and canals in this section, were completely eclipsed recently when the Norwegian steamship Childar was plundered on the high seas.

It was bold enough to recall to the western world the days of Captain Kidd, 200 years ago, and it was a rare case even for these waters.

The number of foreign warships constantly cruising up and down the China coast and the fact that many of the merchant ships carry rifles and ammunition generally deter the Chinese from such acts of boldness, for they are given short shrifts when caught. In the early days of the British settlement at Hongkong scores of pirate junks were captured and sunk and there are records of forty and fifty being sent to the bottom in a day.

The Childar was captured in a very simple way. About fifty pirates went aboard the ship at Hongkong as ordinary steerage or "deck" passengers, bound for places up the coast. There being altogether 200 Chinese making the journey, no notice was taken of them.

They were evidently a little nervous over the enterprise, and soon roused the suspicions of the bonafide Chinese passengers by their restlessness and earnest conversations in little groups. Seeing that they were being watched they put their plans into execution sooner, evidently, than they had intended, but with complete success.

About forty miles out of Hongkong they whipped out their revolvers and rushed the officers. There were six white officers, and none of them were armed or within the reach of weapons. The second officer, who was on the bridge, tried to give the alarm to the others below and was promptly laid senseless with the butt of a pistol. Otherwise no bodily injury was done.

On their arms, so that they could know one another, the pirates wore white bands similar to those worn by the Chinese revolutionists two years ago. There were characters on the bands, the translation of which is said to be "money comes easy."

Four of the officers were tightly bound and placed in the auxiliary wheelhouse at the stern of the ship, while the second and third engineers were left free to work the engines under the direction of the pirates. Pirate navigators assumed control of the bridge and gave the proper signals to the engine room. A very careful course through dangerous shoals was steered until the ship put into a little bay known as Bias Bay. There, two junks, which had evidently been awaiting the arrival of the Childar, received the collected money and valuables which had been taken from the ship, the officers, and the passengers. Even the uniforms of the officers and the good clothes of the Chinese passengers were taken and almost all the brass fittings of the ship.

A GHOST IN THE CLOUDS.

Curious Experience of an English Army Aviator.

The first air ghost has just been encountered on Salisbury plain by one of the most skillful of the army aviators, who went up in a monoplane on a cloudy day accompanied by his mechanic.

The aeroplane entered the clouds, and the pilot was continuing his flight in them when suddenly he discovered another monoplane, no more than fifty yards away, coming straight toward him out of the mist. He dived almost vertically, and, after a headlong descent, leveled out once more, but his relief was only momentary.

The other pilot must have performed exactly the same maneuver, for no sooner was he speeding along again on a level than he saw the monoplane once again looming out of the mist, heading straight toward him.

Terror struck, the pilot dived again, emerged below the clouds and forthwith landed. Not until then did the explanation strike him. He had fallen a victim to a hallucination of the clouds familiar to every Alpinist and had seen his living shadow projected upon the film of vapor.—Sheffield Telegraph.

WILL REPRESENT CHIEF CARRANZA

Washington, May 15.—It is learned that there is a strong likelihood that Carranza will go to the extent of having representatives at Niagara Falls who will not be in the mediation conference, which meets Monday. They will merely be on the ground to keep him informed of developments and to be in a position to take part, in the event of any sudden turn which would permit of an acceptance of the mediators' invitation by the Constitutionalist chief. The only contingency that could bring such a situation about would be a complete recalling on the part of Huerta and a suggestion by the mediators for Carranza's co-operation in the establishment of a government at Mexico City.

Carranza's taking of Tampico and the continued success of the forces in other parts of Mexico led to a revival of reports in Washington that the United States might take steps to recognize Carranza. It was learned, however, that there is no likelihood of any action by the United States at this time. The Constitutionalist are not pressing for recognition, and are well satisfied with the manner in which Zubaran, their special representative in Washington, has been received.

The most serious problem facing this government, growing out of the fall of Tampico, is the question whether or not the embargo shall be enforced against the shipment of arms from ports of the United States to the Mexican gulf points not controlled by the Constitutionalist.

The South American mediators have perfected all arrangements to leave for the scene of the conference. One or two clerks left for Niagara Falls to arrange the preliminaries. The two American representatives, Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, former solicitor general, will leave tomorrow.

BELONG TO NO FACTION

Havana, Cuba, May 15.—The Mexican delegates to the peace conference at Niagara Falls, Canada, were transferred to the steamer Miami, which sailed for Key West.

Senor Augustin Rodriguez, one of the delegates, in reply to questions said: "We are not politicians. We belong to no party or faction, and it was for this reason that President Huerta appointed us. We are serving through patriotism for the best interests of our country. The rumors that we would resign when we were free from Mexico probably started because we are nonpolitical in our views. However, these reports are absolutely untrue. We have ample authority to save our country's honor and to adjust our country's foreign differences. We go to hear and to act according to the dictates of our consciences, having no instructed formula for mediation."

From the majority of the delegates and the reply of Senor Rodriguez to questions, it is believed that mediation will fail if President Huerta's resignation is insisted upon.

WOUNDED ARE BROUGHT HOME

New York, May 15.—Thirty young men of the navy came back to New York on the United States hospital ship Solace, not because they wanted to leave what they called "the fun" down in Vera Cruz, but because they were ordered here for the better accommodations afforded by the naval hospital in the New York navy yard. There were three dead bodies, in flag-draped coffins, on the Solace. Two of them died from wounds they got in the occupation of Vera Cruz and the third was a victim of appendicitis, which he got after he had gone unscathed through the snipers' storm.

Most of the snipers' bullets, the wounded said, came from behind. A Mexican would hide in a doorway until a squad of sailors had gone by and then he would step out and shoot at them. Some of the wounds are in their backs.

Don't be misled. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue. Makes beautiful white clothes. At all good grocers.

FIRE DIRECTLY AT LUDLOW TENTS

Denver, Colo., May 15.—The state militia fired directly into the tents at Ludlow, where two women and 11 children were suffocated by fire and smoke April 20, according to the admission by First Lieutenant M. C. Bigelow, one of the chief witnesses for the state soldiers, before the courtmartial at Golden. This is the first time such an admission has been made by a member of the militia. He declared, however, that the tents were not fired upon until after the strikers had attacked the militia. He said that about 6 o'clock in the evening he and other officers were fired upon by strikers from the tents, the shooting by the strikers prior to that hour having come from a railroad cut and an arroyo. "Then we opened fire on the tent colony proper," said the witness. "When the tents caught fire we ran to rescue women and children from the colony."

STATE'S UPKEEP $3.18 PER CAPITA

Columbus, O., May 15.—The per capita cost of running the state government is a fraction more than $1.86. State Budget Commissioner W. O. Heffernan has this figured out. According to United States census experts, Ohio will have a total population of 5,260,398 persons on July 1. This per capita does not include what is paid for education and for the charitable and penal institutions of the state, for which the per capita is a fraction more than $1.23, and the per capita for the direct tax and irreducible debt due universities, which amounts to a trifle more than 13 cents, making a total of $3.18.

The Car That Is Proud of Its Specifications

This new Cole Model Ten-Four throws a new light on your own purchasing power. It clarifies the air. It shows you what you can actually buy with your money. It sets an inflexible standard of quality and price. It draws for you a new value line up to which any one who sells you a car must now measure. It convinces you of the correct weight for a medium-sized touring car, below which a maker CANNOT go without impoverishing his mechanical margins of safety, and above which he need not go if he has access to engineers sufficiently skilled and experienced to obtain lightness by the consistent observation of simplicity in construction.

You won't fully understand the actual motor car purchasing power of $1,665 until you've seen this new model for yourself. Demonstrators are here—now.

WILL REPRESENT CHIEF CARRANZA

Washington, May 15.—It is learned that there is a strong likelihood that Carranza will go to the extent of having representatives at Niagara Falls who will not be in the mediation conference, which meets Monday. They will merely be on the ground to keep him informed of developments and to be in a position to take part, in the event of any sudden turn which would permit of an acceptance of the mediators' invitation by the Constitutional chief. The only contingency that could bring such a situation about would be a complete recalling on the part of Huerta and a suggestion by the mediators for Carranza's co-operation in the establishment of a government at Mexico City.

Carranza's taking of Tampico and the continued success of the forces in other parts of Mexico led to a revival of reports in Washington that the United States might take steps to recognize Carranza. It was learned, however, that there is no likelihood of any action by the United States at this time. The Constitutionalists are not pressing for recognition, and are well satisfied with the manner in which Zubaran, their special representative in Washington, has been received.

The most serious problem facing this government, growing out of the fall of Tampico, is the question whether or not the embargo shall be enforced against the shipment of arms from ports of the United States to the Mexican gulf points not controlled by the Constitutionalists.

The South American mediators have perfected all arrangements to leave for the scene of the conference. One or two clerks left for Niagara Falls to arrange the preliminaries. The two American representatives, Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, former solicitor general, will leave tomorrow.

BELONG TO NO FACTION

Havana, Cuba, May 15.—The Mexican delegates to the peace conference at Niagara Falls, Canada, were transferred to the steamer Miami, which sailed for Key West.

Senor Augustin Rodriguez, one of the delegates, in reply to questions said: "We are not politicians. We belong to no party or faction, and it was for this reason that President Huerta appointed us. We are serving through patriotism for the best interests of our country. The rumors that we would resign when we were free from Mexico probably started because we are nonpolitical in our views. However, these reports are absolutely untrue. We have ample authority to save our country's honor and to adjust our country's foreign differences. We go to hear and to act according to the dictates of our consciences, having no instructed formula for mediation."

From the majority of the delegates and the reply of Senor Rodriguez to questions, it is believed that mediation will fail if President Huerta's resignation is insisted upon.

WOUNDED ARE BROUGHT HOME

New York, May 15.—Thirty young men of the navy came back to New York on the United States hospital ship Solace, not because they wanted to leave what they called "the fun" down in Vera Cruz, but because they were ordered here for the better accommodations afforded by the naval hospital in the New York navy yard. There were three dead bodies, in flag-draped coffins, on the Solace. Two of them died from wounds they got in the occupation of Vera Cruz and the third was a victim of appendicitis, which he got after he had gone unscathed through the snipers' storm.

Most of the snipers' bullets, the wounded said, came from behind. A Mexican would hide in a doorway until a squad of sailors had gone by and then he would step out and shoot at them. Some of the wounds are in their backs.

Don't be misled. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue. Makes beautiful white clothes. At all good grocers. adv

AMERICANS MADE SAFE AT TAMPICO

Washington, May 15.—Admiral Mayo, on board the cruiser Des Moines, entered the Panuco river and docked the United States war vessel at the Tampico wharf. The dispatch boat Dolphin accompanied the Des Moines. The navy department officials carefully explained that this move had no object other than a desire to render all assistance possible to the afflicted of both armies and make conditions in the city safe for the Americans.

Tampico itself is reported quiet. On his arrival in Tampico Admiral Mayo cabled the navy department that conditions generally were becoming normal.

Before leaving the city the federal soldiers blew up their barracks, in the center of the city. One gunboat belonging to the federal forces still remains in the Panuco river, Mayo reported.

The possession of the gunboat by the rebels and the artillery in their possession are expected to give the conqueror of the city sufficient heavy guns to move down to the mouth of the Panuco and engage the two federal gunboats now there in the event of a blockade.

VALUABLE MINES MAY BE GRABBED

El Paso, Texas, May 15.—Unless American and other foreign mine owners return to the Parral district and reopen their properties within 15 days the mines will be seized and operated for the benefit of the Mexican people, according to a notice said to have been issued by General Luis Herrera, jefe de las Armas of the Parral district, word of which has reached mining men here.

It is estimated that there is from $30,000,000 to $80,000,000 of foreign capital invested in the Parral district. The mines produce a wide variety of ores, which are in constant demand at smelters throughout Mexico for fluxing purposes. It is said here the foreign mine owners are unwilling to go back under present conditions and contemplate an appeal to the American State Department for protection of their properties.

Among the companies notified of the order by Herrera were the Alvarado Mining Company, the Hidalgo Mining Company, the El Rio Mining Company and the American Smelting and Refining Company.

Many thousand Mexicans are employed in the mines of the district, the Alvarado Company alone employing 1000. These have been out of employment since the closing down of the mines.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND.

Vinol for Run-Down People.

If any one person should know the value of medicines it is the druggist who dispenses them and from our experience we want to say if people in this vicinity only knew the value of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) at this season of the year, we would not be able to supply the demand.

This is because Vinol is a combination of the two most world famed tonics, namely, the medicinal curative elements of cods' livers without the oil, and iron for the blood.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, promotes healthful sleep and a normal appetite.

Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women, should try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

Administration officials were unmistakably pleased at the Constitutionalists' victory at Tampico. Secretary of State Bryan announced with evident satisfaction that assurances had been received from General Carranza that full protection would be given Americans in the Tampico district.

The navy department received a dispatch from Admiral Badger reporting that the Mexican gunboats Bravo and Zaragosa left the bar outside Tampico and have headed south. Admiral Mayo dispatched the United States cruiser Tacoma and the destroyers Warrington and Henly to follow the federal gunboats and report their destination. The withdrawal of the gunboats is accepted by Washington as an indication that Huerta will not undertake a blockade of Tampico, at least immediately. The gunboats have the Mexican tug Tampico in tow.

Admiral Badger reported further that the foreign warships are moving up the Panuco river to Tampico. Admiral Mayo has transferred his flag to the yacht Dolphin, apparently because she can move up and down the river more readily.

VIBRATION TEST DRAWS ATTENTION

A vibration test made on a Cole automobile and which was watched with deep interest by a crowd of local automobile owners, was conducted at the intersection of Main and court street this week, by E. L. Ensign, of the Ensign Motor Company, of Springfield.

Mr. Ensign balanced a silver dollar on its edge on the radiator cap while the motor was revolving at the rate of 650 revolutions per minute.

A photograph of the car with the silver dollar balanced was taken.

MANY AUTO TOURISTS PASS THROUGH CITY

The number of auto tourists who daily pass through Fayette county is surprisingly large, and is rapidly increasing. This means that the wear and tear on Fayette roads by foreign machines is on the increase, and that each year the use of the roads by persons living in other parts of the United States will become greater, and the roads harder to maintain.

On Sundays, during favorable weather, from 25 to 100 tourist machines pass through Fayette county apparently equipped for long journeys.

CHARITABLE WOMEN FURNISH CLOTHING

A number of charitable women of the city have banded together and raised a fund sufficient to provide with clothing other than that furnished for prison wear, Bertha Hutchinson, the woman who on Monday of next week is to face the court of common pleas to answer to a charge of manslaughter.

During her incarceration in the jail she has been visited by Christian women of the city, and through their efforts she has undergone a complete change of heart, and expresses her firm belief in the Christian faith.

AMERICANS MADE SAFE AT TAMPICO

Washington, May 15.—Admiral Mayo, on board the cruiser Des Moines, entered the Panuco river and docked the United States war vessel at the Tampico wharf. The dispatch boat Dolphin accompanied the Des Moines. The navy department officials carefully explained that this move had no object other than a desire to render all assistance possible to the officers of both armies and make conditions in the city safe for the Americans.

Tampico itself is reported quiet. On his arrival in Tampico Admiral Mayo cabled the navy department that conditions generally were becoming normal.

Before leaving the city the federal soldiers blew up their barracks, in the center of the city. One gunboat belonging to the federal forces still remains in the Panuco river, Mayo reported.

The possession of the gunboat by the rebels and the artillery in their possession are expected to give the conqueror of the city sufficient heavy guns to move down to the mouth of the Panuco and engage the two federal gunboats now there in the event of a blockade.

Administration officials were unmistakably pleased at the Constitutionalists' victory at Tampico. Secretary of State Bryan announced with evident satisfaction that assurances had been received from General Carranza that full protection would be given Americans in the Tampico district.

The navy department received a dispatch from Admiral Badger reporting that the Mexican gunboats Bravo and Zaragosa left the bar outside Tampico and have headed south. Admiral Mayo dispatched the United States cruiser Tacoma and the destroyers Warrington and Henly to follow the federal gunboats and report their destination. The withdrawal of the gunboats is accepted by Washington as an indication that Huerta will not undertake a blockade of Tampico, at least immediately. The gunboats have the Mexican tug Tampico in tow.

VALUABLE MINES MAY BE GRABBED

El Paso, Texas, May 15.—Unless American and other foreign mine owners return to the Parral district and reopen their properties within 15 days the mines will be seized and operated for the benefit of the Mexican people, according to a notice said to have been issued by General Luis Herrera, Jefe de las Armas of the Parral district, word of which has reached mining men here.

It is estimated that there is from $30,000,000 to $80,000,000 of foreign capital invested in the Parral district. The mines produce a wide variety of ores, which are in constant demand at smelters throughout Mexico for fluxing purposes. It is said here the foreign mine owners are unwilling to go back under present conditions and contemplate an appeal to the American State Department for protection of their properties.

Among the companies notified of the order by Herrera were the Alvarado Mining Company, the Hidalgo Mining Company, the El Rio Mining Company and the American Smelting and Refining Company. MELLEN ACCUSES HIS ASSOCIATES

Washington, May 15.—Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven railroad, has taken the first step in his purpose to shift the blame for the New Haven's present condition from his own to the shoulders of the directors who were associated with him in the management of the property.

In a statement made public after his appearance before the interstate commerce commission Mr. Mellen contends that the late J. P. Morgan and the other directors on the New Haven board knew of all the negotiations with the Grand Trunk railroad, which preceded the agreement with that line for an interchange of passenger and freight traffic. This is the agreement for which Mr. Mellen has been indicted by the department of justice for conspiracy in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

"The negotiations," says Mr. Mellen, "were all well known to my subordinates and to my associates on the board of directors, and were participated in on one or more occasions by Mr. Morgan, Mr. Smythers and Mr. E. C. Smith."

The giving out of this statement followed a remarkable recital by Mr. Mellen on the witness stand of one chapter of the New Haven's financial history. This related to Mr. Mellen's activity in bringing about certain modifications of the franchise of the West Chester trolley line, which was being acquired by the New Haven in 1908. As Mr. Mellen recalled the circumstances, these changes had to be made by the board of estimate and apportionment of New York city. The changes were effected, he said, through former Police Inspector Thomas Byrnes, who represented parties unknown to Mr. Mellen. The railroad man acknowledged that he had been careful to avoid seeking details in regard to this deal. He suspected, however, that Byrnes represented men of influence, possibly politicians.

It cost the New Haven railroad $1,200,000 to acquire the stock held by the group of individuals represented mysteriously by Byrnes and to effect the changes in the West Chester's franchise. Mr. Mellen acknowledged that the stock was worth intrinsically at that time about "ten cents a pound."

In carrying out this transaction Mr. Mellen issued personal due bills, which were distributed by Byrnes. Some of these due bills are still being

THREE OTHERS WERE CAUGHT WITH BURKE

New York, May 15.—John Burke, who was suspended by Colonel Goethals on charges that as manager of the commissary department of the Panama railroad he had accepted bonuses from merchants from whom he bought supplies, was indicted by the federal grand jury. He is charged with accepting more than $10,000 and also with conspiring with commission agents who sold him the goods.

Eight indictments were handed up to Judge Hand by the grand jury. One charges that Burke conspired with Isaac Brandon, president of Isaac Brandon & Brothers of this city, to give him contracts for supplying sugar, and in consideration for the award accepted $2,500. Brandon is now in Panama, as are the others involved in the present case. In another indictment it is charged that Robert Wilcox, a commission merchant, operating in Panama, paid $400 to Burke in order to get contracts for supplying kerosene. Still another indictment charges that Jacob Salas, a tobacco merchant, made three payments to Burke, aggregating $8,200, in order to get the contract for furnishing the tobacco used in the canal zone. In Burke's department there was about $8,000,000 of business yearly.

Judge Hand issued warrants for the arrest of Burke, Brandon, Wilcox and Salas. Salas surrendered and was held in $10,000 bail.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Those Who Are and Are Not Eligible to the House of Commons.

The British parliament consists of the king (or queen regnant), the lords spiritual and temporal and the commons. The crown virtually appoints the lords spiritual, and the peerages of the lords temporal have been created by the crown, but the members of the house of commons are elected.

Every male British subject of full age and sound mind is eligible unless he is a peer, a member of the clergy of the Roman Catholic church, the Church of England or the Church of Scotland, a judicial officer, a holder of an office under the crown which has been created since 1705 or a pensioner from the crown.

A member of the house of commons holds office until the dissolution of parliament by proclamation under the great seal. The king summons parliament to meet and prescribes the time and place of its meeting, prorogues and dissolves it and commands the writ for the election of members to the house of commons. The present statute law exacts the meeting of parliament once in three years, but the annual voting of supplies has superseded obsolete statutes.

In addition to the general elections held after the dissolution of a parliament, there are bye-elections, occurring when a seat has become vacant by the death of a member, by his succession to the peerage or by his acceptance of office under the crown.—New York Times.

Mazzini Loved London's Fogs.

What feature of London has the strongest appeal for the foreigner? Mazzini loved above all things else the London fogs.

"When you look up," he wrote, "the eye loses itself in a reddish, bell-shaped vault, which always gives me. I don't know why, an idea of the phosphorescent light of the inferno. The whole city seems under a kind of spell and reminds me of the witches' scene in 'Macbeth' or the Brocksberg or the Witch of Endor. The passers-by look like ghosts. One feels almost a ghost oneself."

And years after he had left London for Italy he writes to a friend, "I think very often under these radiant skies of the London fogs and always regretfully."

In the "Autobiography of Jefferson" is this passage:

I never heard either of them speak ten minutes at a time, nor to any but the main point which was to decide the question. They laid their shoulders to the great points, knowing that the little ones would follow of themselves. If the present congress errs in too much talking, how can it be otherwise in a body to which the people send 150 lawyers, whose trade it is to question everything, yield nothing, talk by the hour? That 150 lawyers should do business together ought not to be expected."

MELLEN ACCUSES HIS ASSOCIATES

Washington, May 15. — Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven railroad, has taken the first step in his purpose to shift the blame for the New Haven's present condition from his own to the shoulders of the directors who were associated with him in the management of the property.

In a statement made public after his appearance before the interstate commerce commission Mr. Mellen contends that the late J. P. Morgan and the other directors on the New Haven board knew of all the negotiations with the Grand Trunk railroad, which preceded the agreement with that line for an interchange of passenger and freight traffic. This is the agreement for which Mr. Mellen has been indicted by the department of justice for conspiracy in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

"The negotiations," says Mr. Mellen, "were all well known to my subordinates and to my associates on the board of directors, and were participated in on one or more occasions by Mr. Morgan, Mr. Smythers and Mr. E. C. Smith."

The giving out of this statement followed a remarkable recital by Mr. Mellen on the witness stand of one chapter of the New Haven's financial history. This related to Mr. Mellen's activity in bringing about certain modifications of the franchise of the West Chester trolley line, which was being acquired by the New Haven in 1908. As Mr. Mellen recalled the circumstances, these changes had to be made by the board of estimate and apportionment of New York city. The changes were effected, he said, through former Police Inspector Thomas Byrnes, who represented parties unknown to Mr. Mellen. The railroad man acknowledged that he had been careful to avoid seeking details in regard to this deal. He suspected, however, that Byrnes represented men of influence, possibly politicians.

It cost the New Haven railroad $1,200,000 to acquire the stock held by the group of individuals represented mysteriously by Byrnes and to effect the change in the West Chester's franchise. Mr. Mellen acknowledged that the stock was worth intrinsically at that time about "ten cents a pound."

In carrying out this transaction Mr. Mellen issued personal due bills, which were distributed by Byrnes. Some of these due bills are still being presented for collection, and Mr. Mellen continues to honor them without knowing who the bearers are or without asking any questions.

THREE OTHERS WERE CAUGHT WITH BURKE

New York, May 15.—John Burke, who was suspended by Colonel Goethals on charges that as manager of the commissary department of the Panama railroad he had accepted bonuses from merchants from whom he bought supplies, was indicted by the federal grand jury. He is charged with accepting more than $10,000 and also with conspiring with commission agents who sold him the goods.

Eight indictments were handed up to Judge Hand by the grand jury. One charges that Burke conspired with Isaac Brandon, president of Isaac Brandon & Brothers of this city, to give him contracts for supplying sugar, and in consideration for the award accepted $2,500. Brandon is now in Panama, as are the others involved in the present case. In another indictment it is charged that Robert Wilcox, a commission merchant, operating in Panama, paid $400 to Burke in order to get contracts for supplying kerosene. Still another indictment charges that Jacob Salas, a tobacco merchant, made three payments to Burke, aggregating $8,200, in order to get the contract for furnishing the tobacco used in the canal zone. In Burke's department there was about $8,000,000 of business yearly.

Judge Hand issued warrants for the arrest of Burke, Brandon, Wilcox and Salas. Salas surrendered and was held in $10,000 bail.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Those Who Are and Are Not Eligible to the House of Commons.

The British parliament consists of the king (or queen regnant), the lords spiritual and temporal and the commons. The crown virtually appoints the lords spiritual, and the peerages of the lords temporal have been created by the crown, but the members of the house of commons are elected.

Every male British subject of full age and sound mind is eligible unless he is a peer, a member of the clergy of the Roman Catholic church, the Church of England or the Church of Scotland, a judicial officer, a holder of an office under the crown which has been created since 1705 or a pensioner from the crown.

A member of the house of commons holds office until the dissolution of parliament by proclamation under the great seal. The king summons parliament to meet and prescribes the time and place of its meeting, prorogues and dissolves it and commands the writ for the election of members to the house of commons. The present statute law exacts the meeting of parliament once in three years, but the annual voting of supplies has superseded obsolete statutes.

In addition to the general elections held after the dissolution of a parliament, there are bye-elections, occurring when a seat has become vacant by the death of a member, by his succession to the peerage or by his acceptance of office under the crown.—New York Times.

Mazzini Loved London's Fogs.

What feature of London has the strongest appeal for the foreigner? Mazzini loved above all things else the London fogs.

"When you look up," he wrote, "the eye loses itself in a reddish, bell-shaped vault, which always gives me, I don't know why, an idea of the phosphorescent light of the inferno. The whole city seems under a kind of spell and reminds me of the witches' scene in 'Macbeth' or the Brocksberg or the Witch of Endor. The passersby look like ghosts. One feels almost a ghost oneself."

And years after he had left London for Italy he writes to a friend, "I think very often under these radiant skies of the London fogs and always regretfully."—London Spectator.
